The U.S. had responded with economic sanctions and trade embargoes, especially targeting Japan's oil supplies, which heightened hostilities. In this volatile atmosphere, military planners anticipated the possibility of attack, but the scope and surprise of Japan's assault on Pearl Harbor caught the nation unprepared. It was a meticulously planned operation by the Imperial Japanese Navy, aimed at neutralizing the U.S. Pacific Fleet and securing dominance in the Pacific Theater.

The Day of the Attack: A Detailed Chronology

Early Morning Tensions

On the morning of December 7, 1941, the base was in a state of routine activity. Many service members were beginning their shifts, unaware that an attack was imminent. The skies over Pearl Harbor were clear, and the weather was typical for December—cold but calm.

The Initial Assault

At approximately 7:55 a.m., Japanese aircraft—divided into two waves—began their assault. The first wave targeted battleships, airfields,
