So Far From God is set in a small border town in New Mexico and revolves around the four Santiago sisters—La Loca, Feminista, Serafina, and their youngest, Caridad—each embodying different facets of Mexican-American life and identity. The novel defies traditional storytelling conventions, blending the mundane with the mystical, the political with the personal, and the sacred with the profane. Its nonlinear structure and poetic language invite readers to interpret the narrative on multiple levels, making it a challenging yet rewarding read.
