The Norton Anthology of World Religions Volume 1 is organized into five major sections, each dedicated to one of the included traditions: Hinduism, Buddhism, Daoism, Judaism, and Christianity. Each section begins with an introductory overview that contextualizes the tradition historically, geographically, and philosophically before delving into primary texts and interpretive materials. This structure facilitates a layered understanding, allowing readers to first grasp the broad strokes before engaging directly with sacred writings and scholarly commentary. The anthology employs a chronological approach within each tradition, tracing its origins, development, and significant turning points, while also highlighting regional and cultural variations.
